

You must complete Cafecert supervision to keep your authorization active.

The process for obtaining authorization to use the Denomination of Origin (DO), Regional Denomination of Origin (DOR) and/or Protected Geographical Indication (PGI) of Colombian Coffee.

The procedure must be carried out by the company responsible for the transformation of the coffee:

For more information, contact Intellectual Property Coordination in:

Email address: igp@cafedecolombia.com,

propiedad.intelectual@cafedecolombia.com

Phone: +57 (601) 3136600 ext: 1234, 1768, 1585, 1724

- Grinder: when seeking authorization for green coffee.
- Roaster: if the authorization is sought for roasted coffee.
- Solubilizer: if the authorization is requested for instant or soluble coffee.

The coffee processing company must contact Cafecert (certifying entity) to initiate the process of evaluating and certifying the coffee to obtain the Denomination of Origin (DO), Denomination of Regional Origin (DOR) and/or Send an e-mail to igp@cafedecolombia.com Protected Geographical Indication (PGI). with the Declaration of Interest form found at Please contact them: www.cafedecolombia.com E-mail: cafecert@fundacioncafecert.org. Phone: +57 (601) 3136600 ext: 1345, 1421, 1415, 1295, 1479. For Cafecert you have: Upon completion of the quality and origin a. Send the initial document requested by features and standards, Cafecert certified the Cafecert. product as compliant. b. Pay the cost of evaluation, previously communicated by Cafecert. c. Send coffee samples to make the product evaluation. The Federation of Coffee Growers issues the Letter of Authorization for the use of the Denomination Authorization letter emitted by The Federation of Origin, Regional Denomination of Origin, and/or Coffee Growers is free. Protected Geographical Indication.